

2022 CORRIDA
 (Spanish for 'bullfight')
Spanish-Style Red Blend
 Columbia Valley AVA

The BRIAN CARTER CELLARS Spanish-Style red blend, CORRIDA, is inspired by the noble wines of Spain, particularly the region of Rioja where Tempranillo is king. Tempranillo is widely regarded as the most revered grape in Spain. The varieties Graciano and Garnacha (also known as Grenache in France) both traditional blending grapes in Rioja, add berry fruit highlights along with softer tannins. A touch of Cabernet, and Monastrell (originally a Spanish Grape, known as Mourvedre in France) adds spice.

A beautiful garnet color, the wine greets you with bright aromas of blackberry, toasted cedar, tar and black pepper with hints of baking spices. On the palate, the ripeness of the vintage shows through with expansive fruit balanced with pleasing old-world acidity. The wine lingers nicely in the mouth finishing with the presence of fine tannins. Enjoy this wine with grilled meats such as perfectly cooked rack of lamb and grilled vegetables, or on a less auspicious occasion, how about a burger loaded up with bacon!
